Cargo Van Business Starter Kit

A practical workbook for launching and organizing a small cargo-van delivery operation

Start Here

• Define your service area, vehicle type, delivery radius, operating hours, and ideal customer.

• Choose your operating model and confirm applicable laws, contracts, insurance, and licensing requirements before operating.

• Create separate business banking and bookkeeping processes.

Startup Checklist

• Business registration reviewed

• Business bank account established

• Commercial auto and cargo insurance requirements reviewed

• Vehicle inspection and maintenance plan created

• Driver onboarding process created

• Customer service phone/email established

• Quote and invoice templates created

• Proof-of-delivery process created

• Fuel and mileage tracking established

• Emergency/contact procedure established

Service Menu

• Same-day local delivery

• Scheduled business-to-business routes

• Parts and supplies delivery

• Retail/e-commerce delivery

• After-hours or rush delivery

• Dedicated recurring route service

Pricing Worksheet

• Base trip fee: $_____

• Per-mile rate: $_____

• Wait-time fee: $_____ per hour

• After-hours/rush fee: $_____

• Additional stop fee: $_____

• Special handling fee: $_____

• Minimum charge: $_____

First 25 Prospect Types

- Auto-parts stores
- HVAC suppliers
- Plumbing suppliers
- Manufacturers
- Medical supply companies
- Furniture stores
- Appliance retailers
- Local e-commerce businesses
- Construction suppliers
- Wholesale distributors

30-Day Action Plan

- Week 1: finalize offer, pricing, compliance checklist, website/landing page and sales materials.
- Week 2: contact 25 prospects per business day and track every conversation.
- Week 3: follow up and offer an introductory route or trial where appropriate.
- Week 4: convert successful trials into recurring accounts and review margins.

MMJ Digital Business Hub • General business education and templates. Review legal, tax, insurance, and regulatory requirements with qualified professionals where appropriate.